Indonesian Quarantine Authority (IQA) as the official Indonesian border competent authority as notified in WTO G/SPS/N/IDN/148, regulates documents for exportation and importation of animal and animal products, fish and fish products, plant and plant product into and or from territory of Republic of Indonesia.

Focus on Fish Quarantine Sector, IQA regulates documents for export of fish and fish product from Indonesia to destination countries. The document which regulated by IQA is Health Certificate (HC KI-1) with code of document KI-1, this under regulation Decree of the Chairman of the Indonesian Quarantine Authority No 9 Year of 2024.

In order to guarantee fish health, safety and quality of fishery products, IQA as an authority issues HC export of fish and fish product from Indonesia to destination countries. This document certifies fish and fish products have met health and safety standard required by the importing country as well as guarantee compliance with international regulations, facilitates customs and quarantine procedures.

In addition, for importation of fish and fish product into territory of Republic of Indonesia, IQA regulates Prior Notice (code of document: K-1.2) and Notification of Non-Compliance (Code of document; K-7.4).

Prior Notice (K-1.2) document will provide initial information and notification for the commodities which will be exported to Indonesia. Prior notice must be sent by exporter from exporting country to IQA prior the departure of commodities to Indonesia.

Notification of Non-Compliance (K-7.4) document provides notification for non-compliance of SPS issues related to the importation of fish and fish products into territory of Indonesia.
